#HelloYellow Day: is back on the 9th October. As a school, we have again decided to support the charity YoungMinds, the UK's leading charity committed to improving the emotional wellbeing and mental health of children and young people.

For further information please visit www.youngminds.org.uk

On #HelloYellow day, we can support the charity by wearing yellow to school - whether it is a splash of colour or dressed head-to-toe in yellow! - in exchange for a small donation of £1; showing young people they are not alone with their mental health.

Participation is optional; however, it would be great to see as many pupils as possible supporting this fantastic cause.

You can donate by visiting: <https://www.justgiving.com/campaign/helloyellow2020>, please do not send any donations into school.
